1. Timetable

The screenshot displays a conference timetable for Saturday, November 30th. At the top, there are two tabs: 'Timetable' (selected) and 'My Schedule'. A date selector shows '11/30(Sat)'. The timetable is organized by time slots (9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00) and rooms (Hall, Room1, Room2). A red callout box highlights a session in the Hall at 11:00-12:05, with the text 'Click on the session'.

1. Timetable

A list of abstracts to be presented in this session will be displayed. Click on the title to see information about each presentation.

Click the heart mark to add the presentation in "My Schedule". You can also register all the presentations in this session at once.

The screenshot shows a conference timetable interface. At the top, there is a dark blue header with the text "(Discussion) Capacity Building for Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR)". Below this, the location and time are listed: "Hall | 11/30 - 10:55~12:05 |". The host information is "Lai Fu-Chih ¹(1. College of Nursing, Taipei Medical University)". A red-bordered button with a heart icon and the text "Add All Presentations to My Schedule" is prominently displayed. Below the button, a note states: "You can check presentations added to My Schedule via 'My Schedule' tab." The main content area lists two presentations. The first is "Session 1 (Panel Discussion) Capacity Building for Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR)" by Hutton Alison (Western Sydney University SWS Nursing & Midwifery Research Alliance), scheduled for 11/30 10:55-12:05 in Hall. The second is "[PA-01]Session 1 (Panel Discussion) Capacity Building for Disaster Risk Reduction (DRR)" by Jeon Yungyong (Korea Armed Forces Nursing Academy). At the bottom right of the first presentation card, there are two icons: a thumbs-up and a heart. Red callout boxes with lines pointing to the heart icon and the "Add All Presentations to My Schedule" button provide instructions on how to add presentations to a user's schedule.
